

"I always feel loved by the cosmos, even if I would get eaten alive"

NORTH FORK ARTIST OPENS HIS ART STUDIO TO PUBLIC

ARTIST: Charles Wildbank

WHEN: May 26, 27 Saturday & Sunday, noon to 6 pm

(Recurring dates...July 14, 15 and August 18,19)

WHERE: Henry Lewis Lane toward end at cul-de-sac in Jamesport, a hamlet of Riverhead

DIRECTIONS: from Riverhead, take Sound Avenue east to Pier Avenue and make right turn onto Henry Lewis Lane toward end at cul-de-sac, follow signs inside

CONTACT: wildbank@wildbank.com

Born and raised in Long Island, Charles Wildbank is well known for his mega large canvases capturing nature, people and life. His 19 foot tall murals are a permanent fixture on board Cunard's Queen Mary 2 ocean liner on its third deck adorning its stairwells. Annually, Wildbank has participated at the Westhampton Beach art fairs over the past 40 years.

Concluding a lifetime of reclusive living, visitors and art fans will be able to take a good peek inside the artist's studio and home plastered with art plus a walk throughout his gardens in view of neighboring farmland and apple orchards reflecting the beauty of the North Fork.

